LITTLETON – The Arapahoe Rescue Patrol will be hosting the “50 Years and Still Searching” celebration on Sunday, July 22nd, at Stern Park in Littleton. Events will begin at 11:00am and continue until 06:00pm. Stan Bush founded the Patrol, an all-volunteer search and rescue agency, in 1957. At the time, it was one of only two search and rescue agencies in Colorado.

The Arapahoe Rescue Patrol is the only professional, youth-run, search and rescue agency in the nation. Throughout their 50-year history they have never charged for their services, saving Colorado taxpayers countless amounts that almost certainly total in the several millions of dollars.

The event will include search and rescue games and activities for children and adults. An emergency vehicle display, live music, and food vendors will also be involved. We invite all members of the community to stop by and help celebrate this historic occasion.

Additional information on the Patrol’s 50th anniversary activities can be found at www.arapahoe-rescue-patrol.com.
